Consumers' top priority for their Medicare plan	What it means	Key selling points
I want network flexibility and no doctor referrals	I want a plan where I can see out-of-network providers and don't need referrals to see specialists.	• Can see providers in and out of network • No referrals needed for specialists • Travel-friendly health coverage • Rx and dental coverage
I'm healthy, so I don't want to pay for extras I won't use	I just need routine care and coverage, but I do want flexibility and practical benefits like Part B Giveback.	• Coverage for medical needs and other essentials, like prescriptions and dental care • Flexibility with travel-friendly health coverage and no referral needed for specialists • Part B Giveback* that adds money back into my Social Security check • $0 or low premium plan offerings
Gives me quality benefits and in-network care	I want value and a wide range of benefits, and I'm ok staying in a great network to get it.	• $0 or low premiums, plus low or $0 copay doctor visits • Dental, vision and hearing included • Over-the-counter (OTC) benefits and Rx coverage†
Works with my Medicaid coverage (Dual eligible)	I want to get the most out of both my Medicaid and Medicare coverages.	• A monthly allowance to help pay for things like groceries and utilities† • $0 on hundreds of prescriptions, all year long‡ • Dental, vision and hearing included • $0 monthly plan premium
I want access to care outside of my VA coverage	I want access to care outside of the VA, without disrupting my VA benefits.	• Keep more of your Social Security check each month with Part B Giveback* • $0 copays for in-network behavioral health visits (available to all plan members, including veterans) • Access to Humana Customer Care specialists, who collaborated with USAA to receive special training to better serve veterans • Access to doctors, pharmacies (on Rx plans) and hospitals outside the VA network • Dental benefits not provided by the VA

* The Part B Giveback Benefit pays for your Part B premium and the amount may change based on the amount you pay for Part B. It may take several months before the giveback appears in your social security check.

† Allowance amounts cannot be combined with other benefit allowances. Limitations and restrictions may apply. Merchant participation is subject to change and does not guarantee acceptance of the Human Spending Account Card. Some rent or utility companies may not accept this form of payment. This spending allowance is a special supplemental benefit program for members with specific chronic conditions who require intensive care coordination and are at a high risk of hospitalization or other adverse health outcomes. Qualifying conditions may include diabetes mellitus, cardiovascular disorders, chronic and disabling mental health conditions, chronic lung disorders, or chronic heart failure, among others. Some plans require at least two chronic conditions. See the plan's Evidence of Coverage/Member Handbook for details. If you use this program for rent or utilities, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) requires it to be reported as income. Contact your local HUD office with questions.

‡ Prescription drug coverage can vary across plans. $0 copay may be limited to specific tiers, coverage stages, 3-month supply and/or certain pharmacies.

 Dual Special Needs Plans have a $0 premium for members with Extra Help from Medicare (Low Income Subsidy). Members who don't qualify for Extra Help may have a premium in select markets.

Humana developed the Consumer Plan Priorities through extensive consumer research, identifying unique needs and preferences. The recommended plans align closely with these needs and should be considered starting points for discussions. Each consumer has unique stories and priorities, so a thorough NEEDS analysis is essential.

Legacy Plans

"Legacy" plans are Medicare Advantage plans that Humana still offers in Washington for 2027.

[Each county with a legacy plan will have other plans available with lower premiums or better benefits. Therefore, Humana is choosing not to actively market these existing legacy plans.

If a member is currently enrolled in a legacy plan that is also available in 2028, they will automatically renew in their existing plan unless they choose to enroll in a different plan offered in their service area.]

- Can be offered to consumers year-round
- Competitive premiums in many markets
- Offers a variety of secure and convenient payment options

Additional resources

As with all Medicare plans, there are important details that you will want to share with your clients, which is why Humana provides you with extensive resources. We'll help you so you're ready to take members through the enrollment process, make the most of their benefits and answer any questions they may have. You'll find all the resources available on the Med Supp overview page within AgentAdvantage University (AAU), accessible through the Vantage agent portal.

Healthy Options allowance

Help with the cost of living on an easy-to-use card

Get a monthly allowance to help pay for covered over-the-counter (OTC) items like vitamins, pain relievers and first aid supplies. Plus, you can use this money for eligible groceries, utilities, rent and more if you have eligible chronic conditions that meet certain criteria. Whatever you don't spend carries over each month.*

Members of general enrollment plans and D-SNPs will need to qualify to spend their money on additional categories like groceries. C-SNP members qualify to use their allowance in these categories.

The Humana Spending Account Card advantage

With the Humana Spending Account Card†, your clients can easily access and use the Healthy Options allowance-based benefit included in their plan. The card comes pre-loaded with their spending money based on their plan for convenient use at participating providers for eligible goods and services.

This card is not available with plans that do not include the Healthy Options allowance, so be sure to check what's available to your prospective clients.

Allowance highlights

Key features of the Healthy Options allowance:

- Available on 99% of D-SNPs
- Unused funds roll over each month and expire upon disenrollment or at the end of the plan year

Expenses covered

Healthy Options allowance can be used at participating retailer locations to buy eligible products.

- All enrollees can use their allowance on OTC health and wellness items like vitamins, first aid supplies, pain relief medicine, incontinence supplies and more.
- Enrollees with eligible chronic conditions that meet certain criteria can use their allowance on:
  - Home supplies and household assistive devices
  - Groceries (produce, fruit, bread, meat, dairy, etc.)
  - Personal care items (toothpaste, shampoo, deodorant, etc.)
  - Pet supplies (pet food, pet litter, flea shampoo, etc.; excludes grooming services, veterinary bills, and pet prescriptions)
  - Non-medical transportation costs (public transportation, taxi, Uber, Lyft, etc.)
  - Pest control services
  - And more

* Allowance amounts cannot be combined with other benefit allowances. Limitations and restrictions may apply. Merchant participation is subject to change and does not guarantee acceptance of the Human Spending Account Card. Some rent or utility companies may not accept this form of payment. This spending allowance is a special supplemental benefit program for members with specific chronic conditions who require intensive care coordination and are at a high risk of hospitalization or other adverse health outcomes. Qualifying conditions may include diabetes mellitus, cardiovascular disorders, chronic and disabling mental health conditions, chronic lung disorders, or chronic heart failure, among others. Some plans require at least two chronic conditions. See the plan's Evidence of Coverage/Member Handbook for details. If you use this program for rent or utilities, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) requires it to be reported as income. Contact your local HUD office with questions.

Health Risk Assessment

Help clients transition smoothly into their new plan

Looking out for your clients

Humana's Health Risk Assessment (HRA) is an optional, but highly encouraged, survey administered to Special Needs Plan (SNP) members after enrollment. The HRA helps Humana address our SNP members' needs and may make them eligible for Humana's Healthy Options Allowance® (HOA) benefit by confirming diagnosis of a qualifying condition.

The HRA asks SNP members about:

- Fall risk
- Financial security
- Hospitalizations
- Housing
- Loneliness
- Medical conditions
- Prescription adherence
- Transportation

Your role in the assessment

Depending on your role, the HRA is completed either by you or by an advocate as part of member activation. For agents administering the HRA themselves, you are the first step in helping Humana's SNP members receive the care and benefits they deserve. To get started, you'll complete both annual certification and model of care training through Humana MarketPoint University. This will give you access to the Humana Enrollment Platform and the HRA. Agents are encouraged to complete the HRA immediately after an SNP enrollment. When conducting the HRA, remember to ask each question and encourage honest responses from your client.

Additional information

Although many SNP members qualify for HOA benefits based on their HRA responses, those who don't immediately qualify may become eligible later based on Humana claims data or if their condition changes. Agents should clearly communicate that HOA qualification is not guaranteed simply by completing the HRA.

After your SNP member's plan effective date, they will be contacted by a member of Humana's Care Management Team to review their HRA responses and develop a Care Plan to ensure they receive the benefits and support they need to achieve their best health.

Over-the-counter allowance

Covering everything from first aid supplies to cough drops, this benefit gives members a regular allowance for health products. Humana's over-the-counter (OTC) allowance is an excellent way to help sell to prospects who have ongoing nonprescription needs.

How it works

Humana's OTC allowance offers members access to nonprescription medicines and wellness products. There are two types of OTC allowance benefits: OTC mail order or OTC allowance. Only one option is available on a given plan.

OTC mail-order allowance:

- Not loaded to the Humana Spending Account Card
- Mail orders are fulfilled by CenterWell Pharmacy®

OTC allowance:

- Loaded to the Humana Spending Account Card
- Can be used at retailers found by using the Store Finder at MyHumana.com

What it covers

The OTC allowance can be used at participating retailers to buy eligible products in the following categories:

- Cold and flu medicine
- Allergy and sinus medicine
- Dental and denture care items
- Digestive health products
- Eye and ear care items
- Pain relief medicine
- Supports, braces and wraps
- Vitamins and minerals
- First aid supplies

The Humana Spending Account Card advantage

With the Humana Spending Account Card*, your clients get access to an allowance-based benefit included in their Humana plan. They can enjoy the convenience of using their card at participating providers for eligible goods and services.

Allowance amounts cannot be combined with other benefit allowances. Limitations and restrictions may apply.

* Merchant participation is subject to change and does not guarantee acceptance of the spending account card.

Scope of Appointment (SOA)

Getting the most out of your sales appointments

The Scope of Appointment (SOA) is a documented agreement between the beneficiary and the agent that outlines the list of products you can discuss at a marketing appointment. Understanding and using the SOA will help you deliver thorough service to clients while improving your sales process.

When to use an SOA

An SOA is required for:

- Personal/individual marketing appointments, including scheduled, walk-in or telephonic or virtual presentations
- Each beneficiary being presented to, even if they live in the same residence
- SOA cannot be collected at educational events

When an SOA is not needed

An SOA is not required when presenting plans other than MA, MAPD or PDP.

SOA signature timing

A beneficiary must sign an SOA before a personal or individual marketing appointment begins. That way, there is no miscommunication and there are clear parameters for the meeting. Effective October 1, 2026, the 48-hour waiting period is no longer required.

Note: SOAs are valid for 12 months after signature.

Discussing additional health products

If the beneficiary or agent wants to discuss additional health products during the appointment, a new SOA must be executed with the original products and any new health-related products selected.

Methods of documentation

Humana offers various methods for documenting SOAs:

- Paper: barcoded forms ordered through the order management system, retained for 10 years
- Humana Enrollment Platform: Signed SOAs will be canceled 12 months + 1 day from the creation date of the SOA within the Humana Enrollment tool.

For more detailed trainings, search “Scope of Appointment” inside of AgentAdvantage University (AAU) on the Vantage Agent portal.
