Authorization to release information

Completion of this document authorizes the disclosure and/or use of individually identifiable health information, as set forth below, consistent with federal law.

I understand and agree that:

- This authorization is voluntary;
- My health information may contain information created by other persons or entities including health care providers or health insurance companies and may contain medical, pharmacy, dental, vision, mental health, substance abuse, HIV/AIDS, psychotherapy, reproductive, communicable disease and health care program information;
- I may not be denied treatment, payment for health care services or enrollment or eligibility for health care benefits if I do not sign this form. However, if I do not sign this form, UnitedHealthcare may not be able to get information needed and may not be able to use another source to verify that I qualify for the healthy food and utilities benefit, and I may not be able to receive these benefits unless eligibility can be verified through another source. Also, I may not be able to exchange certain health information with my network providers, my previous health insurance company, or third parties named herein to better coordinate my healthcare and coverage;
- Once my health information is shared, the person or organization receiving it may share it again. If they are not a health plan, health insurance company or health care provider, the information may no longer be protected by federal privacy laws; and
- This authorization will expire 2 years from the date I sign the authorization. I may revoke this authorization at any time by notifying UnitedHealthcare in writing, by updating my consent-sharing preference on the member site or by calling Customer Service; however, the revocation will not influence any actions taken before the date my revocation is received and processed or any action taken pursuant to reliance on the authorization before the revocation became effective.

Who may receive and disclose my information:

I authorize UnitedHealthcare and its subsidiaries and affiliates to receive from or disclose my individually identifiable health information between and among themselves, my health care providers, my previous health insurance companies, and with vendors that help assess eligibility for benefits and services such as healthy food and utilities.

If I haven't already provided my previous health insurance company's name and my member number, I can submit it on the member site.

Type of information to be disclosed:

I authorize disclosure of all my health information including information relating to medical, pharmacy, dental, vision, mental health, substance abuse, HIV/AIDS, psychotherapy, reproductive, communicable disease and health care program information.

Purpose of disclosure:

My health information is being disclosed to:

- Verify that I qualify for the healthy food and utilities benefit or to verify my diagnosis of a covered chronic condition
- Help keep my health records complete and support my care by:
  - Requesting and sharing information with other health insurance companies I may have coverage with
  - Requesting health information from my previous health insurance company
  - Sharing health information with my network health care providers so they can work together on my care
